UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI THE next session will open on Thursday, Ser tember 27, 1877, and close on Thursday June 27, 1878.

The University is Hereafter Entirely Free The only fee paid by students is one of $10 per session, for fuel, by those who room in the dormitories, and of $5 per session by those who room elsewhere.

Board of excellent quality may be had at $10 and $12 per month, by paying monthly, in advance. The necessary expenses of a student, omitting books and clothing, need not, therefore, exceed $125 to $150 per session. The departments of Chemistry and Natural History, and of Physics and Astronomy, are provided with a good supply of apparatus for experiment and illustration. The University, Law and Society Libraries, contain several thousand volumes, and will be increased. The course of instruction is thorough, and the Faculty is composed of able, experienced, christian men.

The University occupies a beautiful site, near the village of Oxford, in the midst of an exceptionally healthy section of country; and is, in a measure, free viniage of Oxford, in the midst of an exceptionalin healthy section of country; and is, in a measure, free from those seductive influences by which so many young men are led astray in our cities and large towns. The Law Department has been reorganized, and will be open for the reception of students at the beginning of the next session.
